

STEM Workforce

As we move into a more technology-based future, we need talented women and men to occupy STEM careers.

EDUCATION

92% of STEM jobs require an associates degree or higher.

73% of STEM jobs require a bachelor's degree compared to only 21% of overall employment.

EMPLOYMENT

STEM jobs represent ONLY 6.2% of all employment in the United States.

29% of the science & engineering workforce are women

JOB GROWTH

There will be over 1 MILLION new jobs in computer occupations by 2024.

STEM jobs are expected to INCREASE BY 10.9%

2016

2026

SALARY

93% of STEM jobs have wages above the national average

2017 Mean Annual Salary

$50,620

for all jobs

$91,310

for STEM jobs